

Digital Sublimation Printing Fabric

Digital sublimation printing fabric, is one of the digital printing fabrics.

Through special dyeing, qualitative, finishing processing, can absorb, fixed water-borne sublimation ink, and can be transferred from the fabric side of the fabric to the other side of the fabric, thin fabric can achieve the same color on both sides of the fabric effect. The principle is to low-energy sublimation of the disperse dyes made into ink through the sublimation of sublimation digital printing machine, inkjet in the special treatment of sublimation polyester fabric. dye sub fabric printing, color fastness, washing degree reached 4.5 or more, Compared with the traditional way through the transfer of paper, with a better picture and more sharp edge effect; environmental protection, do not need to use transfer paper, saving resources , Reducing the impact on the environment; increase the ease of operation, to avoid the transfer paper due to the movement, folding, distortion caused by the error.
