Product Description

Our white static cling vinyl window film is a non-adhesive vinyl material which is applied directly to glass. As it is non-adhesive, it is very easy to apply and remove, making it ideal for rented properties or for temporary privacy requirements.

There are several uses for this film:

1. As a security measure when going on holiday. Apply to the bottom half of a glazed door so that the post is hidden from view.
2. To help darken a room to aid sleep. Ideal for babies or toddlers who struggle with falling asleep, or shift workers who need to sleep during daytime hours.
3. To hide tools and equipment when working on site in a former shop for example.
